Football

Northstead retain the Brian Robinson Trophy.

On Saturday 2nd October, Northstead retained the Brian Robinson Trophy with a display of hardwork, teamwork and an excellent attitude to sport. Both teams breezed through the group stages with hard fought wins and some excellent finishing helping them to the quarter finals. At this stage, Northstead became unstuck v Seamer but Northstead A won and progressed to the semi-finals. With a 4-0 win v St Peters they advanced to the final without even conceding a goal. In the final, they took on Seamer in what was an enthralling contest. 0-0 at half time, 0-0 at full time and 0-0 at extra time led to a golden goal session. With it down to 4 v 4, J.Cordukes struck the winner for Northstead.

Well done to all the boys involved.
